Queeny Park, Greensfelder Rec Plex, 550 Weidman Road, St. Louis, MO 63011

-When you arrive, there will be "welcome tables" with scoring rubrics
-Take 2 scoring rubrics in your category
-Write your sequence # and row and position # on the scoring rubrics
-Make sure your sequence # is on your logbook
OR SAVE TIME! Print out 2 rubrics at home, write your sequence # and row and position (found at sciencefairstl.org under judging - rubrics) and place your project in your row and position
-No waiting in line for you!
-Note, students do not present to judges; posters and logbooks are judged.

SAFETY
YOUR PROJECT MUST BE SAFE!
Your display may NOT contain: food, sharp items, breakables, liquids, animals, body fluids, microbes, flammable, or electrical hazards. ALL PROJECTS REQUIRE SAFETY APPROVAL FORM, please place the safety approval form in the front of your logbook. (Note: you may "fold over" the paper so that the viewer will not be able to identify student.)

DISPLAY BOARD
Your project should be a tri-fold with a self-supporting back. MAXIMUM dimensions of the CENTER PANEL of tri-fold display board is 30 inches. A base is not necessary. No recognizable photos of people or names of people may be displayed that would enable the viewer to identify either the student or the student's school.
